

LIZ LICARI

National Sales Director

With a professional career spanning over 18 years, Liz brings experience, passion and forward thinking to her role as National Sales Director.

During her varied roles, Liz has acquired extensive knowledge in both the Finance and Real Estate Industries.

As a Licensed Estate Agent in Victoria, New South Wales and Queensland, Liz also brings considerable selling expertise to her role. This includes facilitating the sale or purchase of numerous different types of residential and commercial properties. Liz's role also involved heavily in the Property Assessment Analysis, Strategic Management, Acquisitions and Stock Negotiator.

Coupled with excellent leadership and customer relationship skills, Liz has the vision and creative flair to oversee the management, marketing and sales approach for every project, inspiring and encouraging her professional, vibrant and personable team every step of the way.